

Sanity Saving Tips from a Mother of 12, presented by Kimberly Krueger, is the best she has to offer parents! Taken from her 30 year parenting journey, this content is sure to instruct and entertain.

Kimberly has been a mother to 12 for 30 years and is the first to admit that parenting is a daunting task! What other job requires you to be on your toes 24/7 just so you can be completely phased out later? One thing is true: It is the most important job we will ever do... and is worth every effort to do it well.

Kimberly admits she has made every mistake in the book on her parenting journey. Fortunately, human beings learn more from their failures than they do their success...so she has learned A LOT. Having many children, homeschooling for 12 years and being a single mom for a time has afforded her ample opportunities to learn and sharpen new skills that have not only helped prepare her kids for the real world, but saved her sanity. Here is just a sample:

- ❖ Put an end to ridiculous arguing
- ❖ Stop being the family brain
- ❖ Live your passion
- ❖ Never be afraid to look dumb so your kids can get smart
- ❖ Tragedy + Time = Comedy
- ❖ Assume you are NOT always right
- ❖ Nobody like unsolicited advice
- ❖ Get some thick skin...(before they become teens!)
- ❖ Failure is welcome here
- ❖ You teach what you know but you reproduce who you are

Other topics Kimberly has spoken on are Parenting the F. A. I. T. H. F. U. L. Way, 12 Traits of a Leader, and 5 Steps for Confident, Resilient, Confident Kids.

Kimberly Krueger has overcome some of life's toughest struggles with beauty, dignity and grace; with her eyes looking up and never looking back. She fell in love with running in 2014 and has since run over ten 5Ks, half and full marathons. After being hit by a car in 2014, she ran a half marathon just eleven months later. As a third-generation entrepreneur, she has set her goals set high and continues to reach higher while helping women to see their true value and reach their God-given potential. Her mission is to empower women to live extraordinary lives and tell their stories. Through The Fellowship of Extraordinary Women and FEW International Publications, she is doing just that—by leaps and bounds. Kimberly says that her greatest accomplishment in life is being a wife, mother to twelve children and “Noni” to her perfect grandchildren. Her closest friends will tell you that she is “a mom to many and a friend to all.” For fun, she transforms into a ‘Biker Chic,’ and rides alongside her husband, Scott, on her Harley-Davidson® Road King.
